From Pastor Callum... (October 4)

Thank you for your prayers and encouragements. The routines each day are somewhat repetitive and mundane. I give my dad his morning medications, give him breakfast, and ensure that the dog has done what must be done! My sister helps when she is at the house but for part of the last week she has been at her home arranging for contractors to start work on the room and washroom for my parents.

Every morning I continue to clean and clear the house. My parents have lived in the same home for nearly 50 years so they've accumulated many things. Everything must be checked in case it can be recycled, given to thrift stores, or taken to the dump. Thankfully a friend from the church I pastored has been very helpful taking items to recycling, etc.

Catherine, Dakota, and Skylyn arrived on Tuesday. Mom was delighted to see them. They have helped to empty the house too.

Mom is progressing. Today she was well enough to argue with me about why she can't leave the hospital yet. However, she still becomes confused. The doctors want to discuss with me next week what they think the next step will be.

Dad has caught mild pneumonia. He has over exerted himself. He is taking antibiotics and sleeping in his chair at night. He is weak and unstable. Either I or my sister needs to be available to help him with his daily routines.

Generally I'm positive about the progress being made with my parents and the house. It's been great to pray with my mom and encourage dad to pray. My sister sees the help the church offers. This is a witness to her.

I miss everyone at Trinity. I am very grateful to Pastors Doris and Alvin for taking on extra responsibilities. I am grateful to the board and all of you for your faithful witness to Jesus. I will be praying for you as you gather for worship and the Quarterly Church Meeting. The Lord continues to lead us as we fulfil His vision.

Many blessings and love in Jesus, Pastor Callum
