Memory Verse 【Philippians 腓立比書 4:6-7】

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. 應當一無挂慮, 只要凡事藉着禱告, 祈求, 和感謝, 將你們所要的告訴神. 神所賜出人意外的平安, 必在基督耶穌裏, 保守你們的心懷意念.

From Pastor Callum... (October 11)

Thank you so much for your constant prayer support and care. I truly am humbled by your love. Thank you.

I met with the local medical care team on Monday. Mom is physically well enough to be moved out of the stroke ward. She was moved to a different hospital within the same health authority on Wednesday. This is good news. However, the hospital is about 30-40 minutes away, off one of the major national highways. I've restructured my day so I can visit mom. Dad is feeling better (he had a mild infection and a cold). He's finished his course of antibiotics. On Thursday I took him to visit mom for the first time in over a week. It was lovely to see them together again.

Mom is still confused and now more frustrated, even angry, that she can't be discharged yet. Each time I see her, I tell her that the rooms at my sister's house are being renovated so she, dad, and their little dog can move in. Mom repeatedly asks when this will be. At the earliest it will be the end of this month, but because she will need to transfer between different health authorities the inevitable bureaucracy could slow things. She struggles being in the hospital and the fact that her cognitive abilities are now reduced doesn't help. In some ways, I'm the bad guy now because I tell her that I cannot bring her home yet, but one day soon she will move to my sister's.

House clearing continues. I've been wonderfully helped by several friends, one in particular. However, this friend's mom is visiting for the next week or so, so I don't have his help for that time. The house is looking "leaner". The main items to move out are larger, such as cupboards, beds, etc. Some of these will not easily negotiate the sharp 90 degree turn on the stairs. (Yes, I too wonder how they got upstairs in the first place - they were probably constructed in place - they are not easily dismantled.)

I've collected hundreds of photos and other family items, including numerous concert memorabilia and souvenirs from my father's global travels with his orchestra. I even found dozens of letters he wrote to mom when they were courting! And there's a reel film of when I first came home after my birth. I was cute then...

Thanks so much for your prayers. I cannot express enough my gratitude to you all. You are Christ's church in action! Thank you.

Many blessings and much love, Pastor Callum

Callum 牧師的母親已從中風病房轉到另外一家醫院，離家稍遠，開車大概三/四十分鐘。另外，持續收拾整理父母親居住了50多年，堆積了許多舊物的老家。牧師妹妹的家正裝潢中，以便稍後迎接父母親過去照顧安養。特別感謝弟兄姐妹們的代禱。(請找人為你翻譯全文。)
